

Did You Know?

10 Important Criminal Law Tips You NEED to Know!

FrankWalkerLaw.com

1. If law enforcement request to search your house, car or person, you are perfectly within your rights to say NO and seek advice from an Attorney.
2. You can be subjected to greater penalties under the DUI/DWI laws if you refuse to take a breathalyzer test.
3. Operating a vehicle while your driver's license is suspended or revoked will subject you to additional penalties, including the additional loss of driving privileges.
4. If you have prior convictions on your record, you may be subject to certain sentencing enhancements for future convictions, which can increase your prison sentence.
5. You are permitted to consult an attorney before or during questioning by the Police or Government Agency even if you are not under arrest.
6. Certain criminal offenses can be permanently removed from your record through the expungement process.
7. Certain juveniles can be charged as adults for various serious crimes.
8. Your appeal can be dismissed if not properly filed with the correct Court, within the permissible time period and asserting your legal issues with specificity.
9. You may be subject to Mandatory Minimum Sentences if you are convicted of certain criminal offenses.
10. You may be subjected to additional penalties if you are found guilty or plead guilty/nolo to an offense while on probation or parole.

Print and Keep this list in your House and Car for Immediate Reference!

Download copies of this list for Family & Friends at

FrankWalkerLaw.com

Attorney Frank Walker | 412. 401. 1764 (cell)

The information contained herein is for general information purposes only and does not create an attorney-client relationship